Old Dog/New Tricks

Teresa Gregory, Editor

What a crazy fun weekend we had with RVC4 George Haynes and Assistant RVC4 Jeudi Juetten. We had all pushed for a long time to have a presence at Gen Con. This year was it.

It was my first Gen Con. Jan Pfeil Doyle and I spent quite a bit of time just sitting on a bench watching people go by. Some people are obviously very creative and have way too much time on their hands. I don't know a lot about gaming...a-hem...I don't know anything about gaming. I was there to see the sights, and I wasn't disappointed. We did talk our way into the Very Important Gamers lounge that American Mensa was sponsoring.

We also went into the vendor area. We watched someone spray-painting a woman. We looked at stuff and the people who were buying the stuff. We talked to some first-time exhibitors to see what their reaction was to the whole thing.

We also saw an adorable little boy who showed us his new Pokemon Cards. I probably should mention that he's my 9-year-old grandson. He was there with his dad.

The real fun was getting together with George and Jeudi. They got into town on Friday and we went to an Ethiopian restaurant. It was George's first time with that and he seemed to like it. Saturday, Jan and Leo accompanied them downtown to Gen Con. I had another obligation that day. George had asked if there was any CIM activity on Saturday night that he could attend, so Jan created one. After a day of tromping around the Convention Center, we met at their house for a CIM pizza party. There were about 15 people who came and it was a really fun time. One of the more interesting things about a group of Mensans is how quickly a conversation can change course. The conversation that night went everywhere! There are some pictures from that weekend in this issue of MIND.

Please vote. People work very hard to make elections happen. The bylaws committee gave up valuable free time to meet and work on this document. Please take a look at it and vote. Our current bylaws are terribly out of date. Help CIM move into the 21st Century. And vote for the ExCom. These are the people who will give up their time to meet and make CIM the best group they can. Show them some love by voting!

Rob Pyatt and Wacky Science Back

Again – The speaker for our September monthly gathering will be Rob Pyatt, PhD. Rob has spoken to our group several times and is always entertaining and thought-provoking. He loves to find and talk about off-beat scientific research. He also conducts his own research projects using his audiences as subjects, voluntarily of course. We should hear the results of the toilet paper usage methods survey he took last year when he was here. It will undoubtedly be a fun and informative program!

Please Vote! – Central Indiana Mensa's bi-annual ExCom election (ExCom = Executive Committee, the board that conducts the day-to-day business of running CIM) AND our bylaws revisions approval are this month on the same ballot. The ballot and instructions are in this issue of MIND. You can also vote at the September monthly meeting. We will elect a Local Secretary and eight additional board members to serve on ExCom for the next two years. The Nominating Committee (chair Larry Marcus with Alan Schmidt and Teresa Gregory.) did good job of recruiting a nice cross-section of candidates. Thank you all! Candidates' pictures and campaign statements were in the August MIND. In addition, we will be voting on revisions to our local bylaws. The bylaws committee (chair Marcele Everest with Jon Applegate, Ethan Blocker-Smith, Leo Doyle, Teresa Gregory, and Ann Hake plus proofreader Petra Ritchie) put in a LOT of work over several months to update our 20+ year old bylaws and bring them into compliance with the current national minimum standards. Thank you all for your hard work! The revisions have been approved by the national bylaws committee and now need to be approved by 2/3 of those who vote on them in our local election. You can read the proposed revisions in the May MIND or online at www.indymensa.org (scroll to the bottom of the main page). I encourage you to vote to approve the revisions.

GenCon and visit from our Regional Vice Chair – Our RVC George Haynes from St Louis and Ass't RVC Jeudi Juetten from Chicago were in Indianapolis to check out GenCon and the Mensa-sponsored Very Important Gamers lounge there. Teresa Gregory, Leo Doyle and I also went. Teresa has been advocating for years that we should promote Mensa at GenCon, the huge annual gaming convention. This was Mensa's first appearance there. If you attend GenCon and have any thoughts about a Mensa – GenCon connection, please let me know. We had nice time and good attendance at the party/meet n greet with George and Jeudi afterwards.

Election Information

Following this page are two pages of ballots. One is for acceptance of the new bylaws for Central Indiana Mensa, the other is for the Executive Committee who will represent and work for YOU for the next two years. Both of these elections deserve your attention. Please vote!

Central Indiana Mensa 2016 Revised Bylaws Ballot

A committee of local Mensans developed a set of proposed bylaws for CIM, then worked with American Mensa to refine them so that they met all of the national bylaws requirements. The last step at the local level is for us to vote 'yes' or 'no' to indicate whether we want these new bylaws as they are written as our new bylaws for CIM. In order for them to become our new bylaws the CIM membership must approve them with a 2/3 majority of the votes cast. These proposed bylaws can be found on the CIM website, the May issue of MIND, or you may contact Marcele Everest (marcele.everest@gmail.com or 765-221-9477) to get a hard copy.

_____ Yes, I want these proposed bylaws to become our official bylaws for CIM.

_____ No, I do not want these proposed bylaws to become our official bylaws for CIM.

Since there was no principal speaker, August's "Ten Minutes of Math and Science" was a double bill, both attendee-requested topics: Life on Other Planets and Hair.

LoOP, the first presentation, considered the pros and cons of its topic, the cons being that of thousands of extrasolar planets discovered, none so far really possesses the advantages of Earth, but the pros being the equally recent discoveries of Domains of "extremophiles" to whom conditions fatal to Eukaryotic life (mainly us) are home, sweet home.

Hair, a signal characteristic of mammals (despite all the non-mammalian structures that look like hair) turns out to be one of the impressive variety of structures that evolved from the lizard's claws.

September's presentation, in time to enjoy some outdoor field work with what we learn, is Clouds

Four To The Fore

George Haynes, RVC4

I'd like to dedicate this column to celebrating the achievement of a goal I set for myself as your Regional Vice Chair. When I officially took on this elected role, I asserted that I would like to personally visit each local group in this very large North Central area we call Region 4. I believed it then and I believe now even more strongly: The heart and soul of what an RVC should be doing is visiting local groups. In reaching this goal, I have had the pleasure and privilege of visiting all nine local groups in our region. Below are a few of the highlights of my visits:

it

Central Indiana Mensa: Your Winter Time Fun RG is always a pleasure to attend. Your members were so very helpful and kind as I dealt with car issues.

Chicago Area Mensa: Attending WeeM in 2015 gave me two buttons to proudly add to my coveted Mensa bling: The pretentious drinking service pin and the clock volunteer service pin.

North-East Indiana Mensa (aka Fort Wayne): The picnic at Bendix Park you organized with CAM was superb. I had a blast.

Iowa-Illinois Mensa: I'm still tasting the yummy food from Haveli. It was also pretty awesome seeing Albert in San Diego.

Mensa of Wisconsin: The RG at the Osthoff was AMAZING!! It was nice chatting with Gene in San Diego, as well.

Minnesota Mensa: I had the privilege of meeting Barb at your Reciphiles SIG and then saw her again, by chance, in Wisconsin AND San Diego. We sat only a few feet away from Wil Wheaton!

Heart of Illinois Mensa: The CornBelters baseball game event was a highlight of my summer. Thanks!

St. Louis Area Mensa: I've really enjoyed being at our ExComm meetings. Mike is also doing a FANTASTIC job with the newsletter.

Sangamon Valley Mensa: Your dinner events at Hy-Vee have been so enjoyable. It was really cool to see Ed and Deb at the CornBelters game in Normal.

Region 4 Rocks!!

Books On the Runway

Margy Lancet Fletcher

Just letting you know that I will not be able to submit a Books on the Runway article for the September 2016 issue of the MIND. I have been unusually busy during the past six weeks with a variety of activities plus overtime at work. Time rushed by and ran out before I could catch a breath.

Books on the Runway will be back in October 2016.

Thanks much,

Margy

Mensa At Gen Con

The weekend of August 5-7, Indianapolis hosted Gen Con, and Mensa was there. What a great weekend. Here is Jan Pfeil Doyle, Jeudi Juetten, and George Haynes by the Mensa banner outside the Very Important Gamers Lounge. No, they did not color coordinate their clothing before they went.

Saturday night, there was a pizza party at Leo and Jan Doyle's house. Food? Of course, Mensans were there!

More Gen Con...

In the Lounge, Jan and I met Wes from Australia. He showed us around and showed us some bling.

We never did figure out how a light house and a dragon represented American Mensa, but the signage was visually attractive.

Listen to the Rain

Robert O. Adair

Listen to the rain.
The rain speaks
a various language.
Sometimes with mighty torrents
swelling rivers and streams,
terrific lightning bolts
splinting the sky.
Sometimes its refreshing spray
is pleasant and invigorating.
It often recalls old times
when under a slanting
bedroom roof
its pitter patter lulled to sleep.
Sometimes its steady beat cries tears of sadness
amidst a gloomy, overcast day.
It often falls upon
a parched and thirsty soil
washing a dry and dusty land
into cleanness and new life.
Sometimes it speaks
peace and quietness,
tears of joy,
after the storm
raindrops dripping down
from leaf to leaf.
Listen to the rain!

Central Indiana Mensa ExCom Minutes 6/21/16

The committee reviewed the minutes of the May ExCom meeting and made one correction. Ann Hake moved that the minutes be accepted as corrected, Jon

Applegate seconded the motion, and it passed.

The committee reviewed the Treasurer's report. Karen Zwick commented that she does not have all the OG expenses yet. Diane O'Brien moved that the Treasurer's report be accepted as presented. Ann Hake seconded the motion, and the motion was carried.

The membership report shows 5 new, 1 reinstating, 1 move-in, and 9 renewing members, 1 offer of membership, 13 prospects, and 507 total members.

Old Business

ExCom election: Larry Marcus, chair of the nominating committee, reported on the candidates for the ExCom. Jan Pfeil Doyle appointed Petra Ritchie to chair the election committee. The ExCom discussed whether the ballots for the revised by-laws and the election could be submitted in the same envelope. Teresa Gregory will talk with Marcele Everest about the logistics. Ballots for the election must be mailed to members by Aug. 20. The August MINDBending date of Aug. 16 will meet that need.

Test location: Petra Ritchie has sent the All Souls Unitarian Church cost information to Jan Pfeil Doyle. We need a space for which we would not have to pay. Bob Zdanky will check on a bank near his home for September, and will also check on IU Health North. Teresa Gregory would like to have multiple locations for national testing month, October, when there is a promotion.

Regional gathering: Jan Pfeil Doyle reported that the receipt for David Bonner's purchase was located.

Meeting location: Petra Ritchie noted that the time for the Monthly Gatherings is incorrect in MIND. She will verify the time with All Souls Unitarian Church.

New Business

Policy on Young Mensan meeting attendance: Ann Hake asked if the Young Mensans who stay for the 7:00 meeting pay, as well as the adults. Karen Zwick moved that anyone from the Young Mensans meeting who stays for the 7:00 meeting should pay the usual fee for the meeting. Ethan Blocher-Smith seconded the motion and it was carried.

There being no other business, Karen Zwick made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Ann Hake seconded the motion. The motion was carried, and the meeting was adjourned at 7:31 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Karen Steilberger
